The petitioner is employed as Senior Assistant in the A.P. Residential Educational Institution Society and at present he is working at the Residential School, Kodangal, 2nd respondent herein. Through orders, dated 09.11.2005, he has been transferred to the A.P. Residential School at Maheswaram, Ranga Reddy District. The grievance of the petitioner is that the 2nd respondent is not relieving him even after the receipt of orders of transfer.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

The writ petition was initially listed for admission on 22.11.2005. The learned standing counsel for respondents was directed to obtain instructions. Today, it is reported by the learned standing counsel that the 2nd respondent did not relieve the petitioner, in view of the fact that no Senior Assistant was posted in the place of the petitioner and that ministerial work is yet to be completed.

Consequent upon the transfer, the petitioner is entitled to be relieved from the existing place. However, the delay in relieving the petitioner appears to be that no incumbent is posted in his place and that some work is required to be cleared. Learned standing counsel submits that the presence of the petitioner is required for about two weeks and thereafter he would be relieved.

In view of the facts stated above, the writ petition is disposed of directing the 2nd respondent to relieve the petitioner by 15.12.2005. There shall be no order as to costs.
